July 22, 1922.

Numismatic Museum
156th St., New York.

Gentlemen;

I have three coins which have been in the possession of my family for generations. Some time ago I sent them to the Boston Museum and received the enclosed information about them. I am anxious to find out more about them, and to discover whether or not they are of any value.

Would you be interested in looking at them and advising me? If so, please let me hear from you, and I will send them immediately.

Yours truly,

Wilbur W. Mason

Roman Coins

Largest
1st cent A. D.

Second
Roman Imperial times with perhaps a Greek inscription

Third
Late Roman Imperial times

Coins are too worn to be easily identified/ If sent to the Numismatic Museum 156th St. N. Y.
further information could probably be obtained.
